A Gem of a Place

THE SAPPHIRE BAR AT THE SUKOSOL HAS A DISTINCTLY 1920S FEEL TO IT

THE SUKOSOL BANGKOK (former Siam City) features creative drinks and enchanting jazz music at its new SAPPHIRE BAR. Modelled after a speakeasy in the 1920s, the sleek establishment offers an elegant ambiance with high ceilings, polished wood floors, expansive windows, plush sofas and a palette of sapphire blue, muted purple, subtle green and pops of red. Open from 8 pm to 1 am, the bar's classy signature cocktail is the Sapphire, a blend of Grey Goose vodka, mango juice, orange flower water, fresh vanilla and a loyalty gem waiting for drinkers at the bottom. There's a selection of bite-sized cuisine from the hotel's award-winning Lin-Fa Chinese and Kamon Japanese restaurants, partnered with Western comfort food. The establishment also hosts a Spanish-style ladies' night fiesta every Thursday from 7 to 9 pm featuring free drinks including sangria, mojito, martini and cosmopolitan with gourmet tapas. Gentlemen accompanying their ladies will also receive a 50 per cent discount from standard drinks. For more information, call 0-2247-0123 or visit www.sukosolhotels.com.
