

Redefined Graciousness

The Sukosol Hotel is ideally located in the heart of Bangkok, showcasing colonial-style architecture and Asian aesthetics. Formerly known as The Siam City Hotel, the hotel has been re-branded as Sukosol to reflect the family-run hotel business of the Sukosol family and Bangkok's first independently owned and operated hotel to be officially rated five-star by Thailand's Hospitality Ministry.

The company has invested over Bt400 million on the renovation, development, and re-launch of The Sukosol. The new lobby features a public gallery and Sapphire Bar, along with free high-speed Wi-Fi access for guests throughout the hotel, including upgraded Deluxe Rooms and Suites, a hip new beer and sports bar, and innovative al fresco dining hot spot. All rooms and suites are equipped with contemporary amenities to ensure the comfort and convenience of all guests.

Executive Club Siam guests also benefit from the Club Lounge and its special privileges. For a sneak peak of what to expect, go to www.siamhotels.com.
