

Sukosols star in Hollywood concert

Thailand's grand dame of jazz, Kamala Sukosol, will return in her annual charity concert extravaganza. Entitled "Hollywood Stars & Divas", the show will take place in the Kamolthip Ballroom of Siam City Hotel on March 15 and 17 at 8pm and March 16 at 7pm.

Presented by Sukosol Productions and Singha Corporation, the concert will be jam-packed with entertainment by matriarch Kamala and her talented family — daughters Marisa and Daranee, granddaughter Natalia, and sons Sukie and Noi-Krissada.

Joining the Sukosols on stage will be the 20-member Prachin Songpaw Big Band Orchestra, special guest Dolchai Boonyaratavej and spectacular dancers from the Aree Dance Arts School.

This year's concert will pay respects to some of the world's most memorable, beloved and inspirational songs and performers. The concert's unique songbook will range from classics like Edith Piaf's La Vie En Rose to Michael Jackson's iconic Thriller and Adele's Grammy award-winning Rolling In The Deep.

Highlights will include a "kings of swing" set of Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett and Michael Buble classics and Thailand's dynamite mother-daughter duo, Kamala and Marisa, paying homage to one of the greatest family teams of all time — Judy Garland and Liza Minnelli.

The ensemble will also perform three heartfelt tributes — the first to the undisputed queen of British soul music, Amy Winehouse; the second to the incredible US singer, actress and civil rights activist Lena Horne; and the last to the legendary and unforgettable Whitney Houston.

This is a unique opportunity to see magnificent live singing, dancing, costumes and music at a calibre seldom experienced outside the realm of Broadway and the West End.

All proceeds from the concert will go to the Princess Sirindhorn Chulalongkorn Craniofacial Center and the Flood Relief Fund, both under the Thai Red Cross Society.

Tickets for the March 15 and 17 shows cost 1,000, 1,500, 2,000 and 2,500 baht (400 baht for students); while tickets for the gala dinner on March 16 cost 35,000 and 40,000 baht per table of 10. For bookings, contact Siam City Hotel on 02-247-0123 ext 1928 or 1946.

Kamala Sukosol and her family will return in the "Hollywood Stars & Divas" charity concert at Siam City Hotel on March 15 and 17 at 8pm and March 16 at 7pm.